Special Relativity for Beginners - Jürgen Freund 2008

This book, first appearing in German in 2004 under the title Spezielle Relativitätstheorie für Studienanfänger, offers access to the special theory of relativity for readers with a background in mathematics and physics comparable to a high school honors degree. All mathematical and physical competence required beyond that level is gradually developed through the book, as more advanced topics are introduced. The full tensor formalism, however, is dispensed with as it would only be a burden for the problems to be dealt with. Eventually, a substantial and comprehensive treatise on special relativity emerges which, with its gray-shaded formulary, is an invaluable reference manual for students and scientists alike. Some crucial results are derived more than once with different approaches: the Lorentz transformation in one spatial direction three times, the Doppler formula four times, the Lorentz transformation in two directions twice; also twice the unification of electric and magnetic forces, the velocity addition formula, as well as the aberration formula. Beginners will be grateful to find several routes to the goal; moreover, for a theory like relativity, it is of fundamental importance to demonstrate that it is self-contained and without contradictions. Application of Zemax Programming Language - 612Photonics 2018-02-03

Zemax is widely used in optical designs because it is powerful, flexible, easy to learn, and cost-effective. Besides many standard functions, Zemax also provides a tool called Zemax Programming Language (ZPL). This tool allows people to extend the standard functions of Zemax to meet their special needs. However, the learning process is usually not smooth, sometimes even quite frustrating. This book intends to help readers to learn ZPL quicker and easier. The examples and plots in this book are based on Zemax version 13, but the basic idea should remain the same for different versions of Zemax software. Since Zemax is continuously developing, we encourage readers to refer to official Zemax User's Manual for the updates on ZPL.

Room 555 - Cristy Wilson 2019-01-29

Fourteen-year-old Roonie loves hip-hop almost as much as she loves her grandmother. She cannot wait to compete in her school's dance competition. But as her grandmother's health deteriorates, Roonie becomes more and more reluctant to visit her in the care home. These feelings of guilt and frustration cause Roonie to mess things up with her hip-hop dance partner and best friend, Kira. But while doing some volunteer hours in the hospital geriatric ward, Roonie meets an active senior recovering from a bad fall. Their shared love of dance and the woman's zest for life help Roonie face her fears, make amends with Kira and reconnect with Gram before it's too late.
